Frequently Asked Questions

Eligibility

1. What is the eligibility for the Learning Material Subsidy?

Those who meet all of the following requirements:

- Holder of Macao SAR Resident Identity Card;
- Pursuing in or outside Macao a higher education degree programme or a higher education programme of not less than 2 years offered by a higher education institution that is recognised by the competent authority of the country or region where it is located;
- Studying in an academic year defined by the higher education institution that starts within the academic year 2025/2026 (between April 2025 and March 2026) and lasts for 6 to 12 months;
- The number of times that the Learning Material Subsidy has been granted over the past academic years for the higher education programme being registered in the academic year 2025/2026 is lower than the normal minimum number of years of study set for that programme.

2. Is a student pursuing a certificate or diploma programme eligible for the Learning Material Subsidy?

If the certificate or diploma programme is a higher education degree programme or a higher education programme of not less than 2 years offered by a public or private higher education institution in or outside Macao that is recognised by the competent authority of the country or region where it is located, one is eligible for the Learning Material Subsidy.

3. Is a student pursuing a master's or doctoral degree programme eligible for the Learning Material Subsidy?

Students who are pursuing a higher education degree programme or a higher education programme of not less than 2 years offered by a higher education institution (e.g. a bachelor's, master's or doctoral degree programme) that is recognised by the competent authority of the country or region where it is located are eligible for the Learning Material Subsidy.

Frequently Asked Questions

Eligibility

4. Is a student who is deferring graduation eligible for the Learning Material Subsidy?

Eligibility will be determined on the basis of the normal minimum duration of study for the higher education programme being registered in the academic year 2025/2026. A registrant is eligible only when the number of times he/she has been granted the Learning Material Subsidy over the past academic years for the higher education programme concerned is lower than the normal minimum number of years of study set for that programme (e.g., if the programme information indicates that it takes two to three years to pursue a master's degree, a maximum of two subsidy grants can be provided).

5. For those who have been admitted to a higher education institution by March 2026, but are processing enrolment and registration in April 2026 or later, are they eligible for the 2025/2026 Learning Material Subsidy?

According to Administrative Regulation No. 4/2026, an academic year starting between April 2025 and March 2026 with a duration of 6 to 12 months is regarded as the academic year 2025/2026; therefore, students who are processing enrolment and registration in April 2026 or later are not eligible for this round.

Frequently Asked Questions

Registration documents

9. What are the requirements for proof of student status to be submitted by a registrant?

The proof of student status for the academic year 2025/2026 to be submitted by a registrant must be printed on the letterhead of the higher education institution he/she is attending or the competent authority of the country or region where it is located, and stamped with an official seal or appended with a supplementary note (electronic proof of student status does not need to be stamped). At the same time, the proof of student status should contain the following details: (1) personal identity information of the registrant, (2) name of the higher education institution, (3) enrolment status in the academic year 2025/2026, (4) name of the academic programme (if this is not shown in the document, normally the admission/acceptance letter or programme outline, etc., can be submitted instead), (5) normal minimum duration of study for the programme (if this is not shown in the document, normally the programme outline or curriculum plan indicating the normal minimum duration of study for the programme can be submitted instead), (6) academic year of first enrolment in the programme (if this is not shown in the document, normally the admission/acceptance letter can be submitted instead), and (7) issue date of the document. A template for the document can be viewed at: https://aees.dsedj.gov.mo/pdf/SOEC\_EN.pdf.

10. Do all registrants need to submit their proof of student status for the academic year 2025/2026?

According to Administrative Regulation No. 4/2026, in the academic year 2025/2026, students studying in higher education institutions in Macao, students pursuing a non-local higher education degree or programme of not less than two academic years that is co-offered by a local institution and operates in Macao with the approval of the Macao SAR Government, as well as students pursuing a higher education programme abroad with scholarships, grants and study loans from Macao public entities, are exempted from submitting proof of student status for the academic year 2025/2026. However, if it is deemed necessary by the Fund for eligibility assessment, persons who have registered through the system within the registration period may be required to provide any missing documentation/information or supplementary explanations by the deadline for the submission of supplementary documentation (i.e. on or before 31 August 2026), regardless of whether they are in or outside the Macao Special Administrative Region.

Frequently Asked Questions

Registration result enquiry, subsidy amounts and disbursement schedule and methods

11. How do I check the result of my registration?

Registrants may make an enquiry using the ‘Learning Material Subsidy for Higher Education Students’ service through their Macao One Account, or by e-mail at acees@dsedj.gov.mo. At the same time, the Education Fund will notify the registrants through the email address and valid Macao mobile phone number provided by them. Registrants may provide their email address and Macao mobile phone number through Macao One Account to receive the aforementioned messages. Should there be any update to the email address or Macao mobile phone number provided, the registrant shall notify the Education Fund immediately. Failure to receive notifications due to a failure to promptly update such contact information shall be at the registrant’s own responsibility. Additionally, registrants who have set up a personal account at Macao One Account and have consented to the electronic notification service may also receive their registration results through Macao One Account.

12. When will the subsidy be disbursed normally?

1. For beneficiaries who are eligible for the subsidy from the expiry of the registration period (29 May 2026, Macao time), the Education Fund will make the relevant disbursements on or before 28 July 2026 by bank transfer.
2. In cases where beneficiaries are notified by the Education Fund of the need to submit supplementary documentation or information, upon provision of relevant missing documentation/information or supplementary explanations by the deadline for submitting supplementary documentation (31 August 2026, Macao time) and upon verification of eligibility, the Education Fund will make the relevant disbursements on or before 30 October 2026 by bank transfer.

13. Can I provide the Fund with a bank account opened outside Macao or a foreign currency account for receiving the Learning Material Subsidy?

The Learning Material Subsidy will only be deposited into the individual or joint Macao pataca (MOP) bank account at a bank in the Macao Special Administrative Region opened by the registrant and provided to the Fund.

14. Can I register for the Learning Material Subsidy for Higher Education Students while receiving funding from other institutions?

The Learning Material Subsidy can be received concurrently with other funding given by other public or private entities.

15. What should be noted when registering?

Registrants should confirm that the information being registered is accurate. Registrants should bear relevant responsibilities for delay in subsidy disbursement or ineligibility for the subsidy due to incorrect information registered. If necessary, registrants would be notified separately to provide information and make statements or clarifications. In addition, the Education Fund will verify registrants' student status on a sampling basis; if a registrant provides false information, this shall not only render him/her ineligible for the subsidy, but he/she shall also be held accountable for legal liabilities.
